

About Tecnova

Tecnova has built its reputation as being a preferred partner with the leading vendors and established its name as a value added agents and stockists of HVAC products, Engineering, construction & Industrial products supply and services with a professional team of engineers in various other fields such as Oil & Gas, Water Treatment Plants, Piping, Marine safety & Lifting products.

With many years of demonstrated experience, contacts and association especially in the field of engineering materials sourcing and supply we could assist the companies, project procurement departments and individuals to meet their requirement objectives by giving the best possible timely service with our quality products.

Tecnova has spread its roots all over Dubai, Sharjah & Abu Dhabi Industrial Zone to cater almost all Industries where our Products & services are required. Tecnova is undertaking calibration & instrumentation for field instruments.

Mission with a Vision

We at Tecnova, lead with the supremacy of highly technical & competitive skills. Our strength lies in proactively serving every customer with Priority, Dedication, Loyalty and Trust.

With a mission to provide the best service through an effective system, maintaining the global safety and environmental standards, we trust in the art of seeing things that are invisible.

We visualize ourselves as the pioneer in 'Air Conditioning & Ventilation Product Distribution and Solutions'.

Quality Policy

Our quality policy is to meet and exceed the expectations of our customers by providing quality service. Our management philosophy believes in employing the best people and to foster an environment of team work.

We aim to enhance our service and knowledge by using the best standards of communication and excellent training to our staff, to improve their skills resulting in optimum quality management and client satisfaction.